

English Composition

Instructions: Choose ONE of the following topics and write a single, coherent essay.

- (1) Introduce a theater work or a movie that inspired you very much. Summarize the theme or the story within 100 words in the first paragraph. Then discuss the theme and explain why this work is inspiring.
- (2) What types of books—literary or non-literary—do you usually read? What are your criteria of selecting your readings in general and how do you approach the selected works? Organize your thoughts and develop a thesis before you write.
