Instructions: You know the story of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," which is often told in the third-person point of view. To complete this writing exam, you must retell the story in TWO versions.

- (1) Write in English and tell the story in Snow White's point of view (the first-person point of view).
- (2) Write in English and tell the story in the Queen's point of view (the first-person point of view).

The emphasis of the two versions may be different from each other. But, remember. Be a persistent narrator. If you are writing in the voice of Snow White, you must put on her shoes and tell whatever comes into her knowledge. For things which have happened out of her sight, she must be told about them. But, you may want to reveal her thoughts. Of course, if you are writing in the voice of the Queen, you shouldn't tell the things that she is not able to know.

YOU MUST WRITE BOTH VERSIONS. Watch your time.

Each version will take up 50% and will be graded according to the point of view, organization, expression, and grammar.
