I. Read the following passage and choose the best answer to each question. 8%

Fortunately it is as yet only through fantasy that we can see what the destruction of the scholarly and scientific disciplines would mean to mankind. From history we can learn what their existence has meant. The sheer power of disciplined thought is revealed in practically all the great intellectual and technological advances which the human race has made. The ability of the man of disciplined mind to direct this power effectively upon problems for which he was not specifically trained is proved by examples without number. The real evidence for the value of liberal education lies in history and in the biographies of men who have met the valid criteria of greatness. These support overwhelmingly the claim of liberal education that it can equip a man with fundamental powers of decision and action, applicable not only to boy-girl relationship, to tinkering hobbies, or to choosing the family dentist; but to all the great and varied concerns of human life—not least, those that are unforeseen.

1. The title below that best expresses the ideas of this passage is
 - (A) The destruction of thinking
 - (B) The advance of the human race

IV. Essay Writing 20%

Write a 200-word essay in which you argue for or against the comment below.

Many of today's young people are mainly concerned with prestigious careers, making money, and owning things. It seems we no longer teach the benefits of spending time and money to help the community, the country, and the world. Our country can strengthen these human values and improve the world by requiring young people to spend a year or so working in some type of community service
