Write an essay about common effects of a shaky financial situation on a person's life. Take notes on the following questions. Try to use your answers in your essay. Correct any mistakes in capitalization, punctuation, spelling, or verb use before you copy your final work and turn it in.

1. Do you know someone who is deep in debt? If so, explain the situation.
2. How about you? Does your financial situation ever feel like a load on your mind? Why or why not?
3. If someone did analysis of your spending habits, what would they conclude?
4. Are you struggling with any money problems right now? Do these problems cause you anxiety? Explain.
5. What should you do if you're facing a money crisis?
6. How difficult is it for you to save money? Explain.

Note that your essay will be evaluated by its organization, usage of words, logic and ideas. Title (5%), grammar (35%), content (60%).
